Key Responsibilities

- Developing and delivering integrated campaigns, including influencer, ambassador, and launch activations
- Managing junior team members and ensuring best-in-class delivery across client work
- Driving media relations, from crafting stories and press materials to pitching and securing coverage
- Monitoring campaign progress, delivering reports, and ensuring KPIs are met
- Supporting new business activity, including pitch prep and proposals
- Working closely with colleagues across social, strategy, and content to deliver fully integrated solutions
- Bringing a clear understanding of the media landscape, including news, digital, and influencer environments
- Acting as a trusted client contact and delivering a consultative, collaborative approach

About You

- Strong experience in a consumer PR agency environment, with a track record of delivering impactful work
- Confident leading campaign workstreams and managing day-to-day client relationships
- A natural communicator, comfortable engaging with media, clients, and internal stakeholders
- Organised and detail-driven, with the ability to manage multiple deadlines and keep teams on track
- Comfortable briefing and mentoring junior team members
- Skilled in spotting media opportunities and drafting compelling narratives
- Passionate about creativity, collaboration, and pushing for excellence
- Digital-savvy, with a working knowledge of social platforms, influencers, and how they intersect with PR
- A team player who enjoys a supportive, inclusive, and agile environment

Why Join?

You'll be part of an ambitious agency that uses earned media to build brands and create real impact. The culture is collaborative, curious, and open – and you'll be encouraged to bring your full self to work while developing your career in an environment that values initiative and innovation.
